

DAY 1 – THURSDAY, JANUARY 19TH

Plenaries and Luncheon

7:00 – 8:00	Registration and Continental Breakfast*
8:00 – 8:15	EXHIBITS	Welcome*
8:15 – 9:15		The View from Washington: What Current Challenges and Future Opportunities Mean for North Carolina's Public Health Leaders Michael Fraser, PhD, Executive Director of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officials*
9:15 – 10:15		Advocacy for Leaders: Craft Richer Stories for Public Health*
10:15 – 10:45		Stretch Break, Refreshments and Exhibitors Gallery
10:45 – 11:45		Managing Multiple Generations*
11:45 – 12:00		Break, Transition to Luncheon and Exhibitors Gallery
12:00 – 1:30		Luncheon and Special Remarks, Ronald H. Levine Legacy Award, Association of North Carolina Boards of Health Awards*
1:30 – 1:45		Transition to Skill Building Workshops

Skill Building Workshops

Location	Skill Building Workshop – Block 1 1:45 – 2:45		Skill Building Workshop – Block 2 3:00 – 4:00		Skill Building Workshop – Block 3 4:15 – 5:15
Salon III	"LinkedIn" with Public Health Veterans	EXHIBITS	You Have a Public Health Problem to Solve... Now What?	EXHIBITS	The North Carolina Perinatal Health Strategic Plan: Development and Early Implementation
Salon IV	Planning for a Successful Future of the North Carolina Local Health Department Accreditation Program		GIS Mapping of Social Determinants of Health as a Tool to Facilitate Community Collaborations		GIS Mapping of Social Determinants of Health as a Tool to Facilitate Community Collaborations (Repeat)
Creedmoor	Advancing Equity through Community Partnership		Gun Violence in North Carolina: Reversing an Epidemic – Part 1		Gun Violence in North Carolina: Reversing an Epidemic – Part 2 (Continued)
Dogwood	Advocacy and Communication With Our Public Health Partners		Collective Approach to Social Determinants of Health: An Opportunity for Public-Private Partnerships		Community Health Assessments and Action Plans: Show Me the Value
Magnolia	Leadership – What's Style Got to Do with It?		Grooming Future Leaders: Creating Meaningful Internship Opportunities in Public Health		North Carolina's Statewide Standing Order for Naloxone: Working with Partners to Lead Change
Sycamore	Leadership and Transformation in a New Public Health Workforce Environment		Risk Communications: Leveraging Community Partnerships for Delivering Messages and Impacting Outcomes		Combating the Rising Syphilis Epidemic Through Local & State Leadership
Willow	Overcoming Barriers for More Effective Communication		Public Health Response to Childhood Lead Exposure Resulting from an Occupational Source		Customer Service: The Power of Positivity
Salons F - H	Exhibits: Public Health Career Enhancement Opportunities and North Carolina Division of Public Health Program Resources		Exhibits: Public Health Career Enhancement Opportunities and North Carolina Division of Public Health Program Resources		Exhibits: Public Health Career Enhancement Opportunities and North Carolina Division of Public Health Program Resources

DAY 2 – FRIDAY, JANUARY 20TH

7:45 – 8:15	Continental Breakfast*
8:15 – 9:15	EXHIBITS	Achieving 80% by 2018: Improving Colon Cancer Screening Rates in North Carolina*
9:15 – 10:15		What We Know About Electronic Nicotine Delivery Systems (ENDS)*
10:15 – 10:45		Break and Exhibitors Gallery
10:45 – 11:45		The Ecological Context of Human Health Issues: From Trees to Bacteria to Human Hearts*
11:45 – 12:00		Conference Closing and Remarks*

* All major conference activities (i.e. continental breakfast, plenaries, luncheon, etc.) are held in Salons I and II, unless otherwise noted in your agenda.

Target audience for this session are attendees with 0-5 years of public health experience; however other conference attendees are welcome to attend.